1. Mr. Walter Besterman, of the staff of the House Judiciary Committee, who has just returned from a trip to Europe with the Subcommittee, informed me that their visit to the [REDACTED] was a great success and the members of the Subcommittee, all of whom are unwitting, were well impressed. (See memorandum for DD/P this date).

2. In connection with my conversation with Assistant Secretary of State Morton set forth in Item 1 of the Journal of 19 November, the DCI has approved the arrangements that have been made and I will draft the necessary instructions for the field.

3. Mr. [REDACTED] the Deputy Security Officer, informed me that he has just learned that [REDACTED] carries [REDACTED] as a consultant. [REDACTED] is to receive $25 per telephone interview and $50 per written memorandum. Insofar as it can presently be determined, his services have never been utilized, and he will be stricken from the list.
